Repayment at the end of the term

The repayment at the end of the term depends on whether the barrier has been breached or not. This results in two possible scenarios:

Scenario 1: Barrier not breached until expiry

Current scenario, as the barrier has not been breached.

At the end of the term: repayment	120%
If you purchase the certificate at the current purchase price, this would correspond to the following return	+13.44% (+4.79% p.a.)

Scenario 2: Barrier violated at least once

At the end of the term: repayment	1:1 Development*
-----------------------------------	------------------

*1:1 performance of the underlying with the worse performance (full market risk), but repayment at a maximum of 120%. In the event of a barrier breach, investors are exposed one-to-one to the market risk. This means that in this case, the loss of a significant portion of the invested capital, up to and including total loss, is possible.

The Certificate

Redemption of the nominal value of the certificate Europe Bonus&Safety 29 is effected at 120% provided that the closing price of the underlying always quotes above the barrier of 49% of the starting value during the observation period. In the event of a barrier violation, investors are exposed to full market risk; this means a substantial capital loss is possible.

The underlying asset is the EURO STOXX 50[®] Index. It includes the 50 largest companies from the eurozone. Details and a list of the index members can be found on the website of the index provider STOXX Ltd.

Information on the term

Please note: The price of the certificate is subject to various influencing factors, including the performance of the underlyings, their volatility, correlation and dividend expectations as well as the interest rate level. This price may fall below the issue price and, especially if at least one of the underlyings is close to the barrier, may fluctuate strongly.

Issuer risk / creditor participation: Certificates are not covered by the deposit protection system. There is a risk that Raiffeisen Bank International AG may not be able to meet its payment obligations due to insolvency (issuer risk) or any official orders ("bail-in"). In such cases, the invested capital may be lost in full.

This certificate offers you a repayment of 120% if the underlying is always quoted above the barrier of 49% of the starting value during the term. If the barrier is violated, investors are exposed to the market risk on a one-to-one basis. This means that a significant loss of capital is possible in this case.

How the certificate works

At the initial valuation date the starting value of the underlying is fixed and from that the barrier is determined. During the observation period the underlying price is compared with the barrier. The following options are available at the end of the term:

1. Barrier not touched or undercut
In this case redemption is affected at 120%.
2. Barrier was touched or undercut at least once
In this case redemption on the maturity date will be affected according to the underlying performance. The maximum redemption remains capped at 120% of the nominal value amount.

Certificates are risky instruments of wealth investment. Should the price of the respective underlying instrument of a certificate develop adversely, an investor may lose part or all of his or her invested capital. Certificates react more strongly or weakly to changes of the price of the underlying instrument depending on a number of factors (e.g. volatility or correlation of the underlying instruments, interest, dividends, remaining term, changes in foreign exchange rates) and do not move simultaneously with the underlying. Under certain circumstances the issuer is authorized to redeem the certificates prior to the agreed repayment date.

Issuer Risk/Creditor Participation ("bail-in"): Any payments during or at the end of the term of the certificates depend on the solvency of the issuer ("issuer risk"). Investors are therefore exposed to the risk that Raiffeisen Bank International AG might be unable to fulfil its payment obligations in respect of the described financial instrument such as in the event of insolvency ("issuer risk") or an official directive ("bail-in"). The resolution authority may also issue such an order before any insolvency proceedings if the issuer is judged to be in crisis. Under these circumstances the resolution authority has wide-ranging powers to take action (so-called "bail-in instruments"). For example, it can reduce the claims of investors in respect of the described financial instruments to zero, terminate the described financial instruments, or convert them into shares of the issuer and suspend investors' rights. More detailed further information is available at raiffeisenzertifikate.at/en/bail-in. A total loss of the invested capital is possible. Past performance is no reliable indicator of future results. Please refer to the Base Prospectus for additional disclosures on risks as well as further information.

The Bonus Certificate's price is subject to several influencing factors and need not develop simultaneously to and in accordance with the underlying's performance. Such influencing factors include e.g. intensity of the underlying's price fluctuations (volatility), bond interest rates, solvency of the issuer or remaining term. If the Bonus Certificate is sold prior to the end of the term, there is the risk to incur a partial or even total loss of the invested capital. Dividends and similar rights associated with the underlying are taken into account when structuring the Bonus Certificate and are not paid out.
