

CERTIFICATES AWARD AUSTRIA 2018

RAIFFEISEN CENTROBANK

12TH TIME CERTIFICATES CHAMPION

On Thursday, April 26, for the twelfth time the most prestigious annual award of Austria's structured products industry, the Certificates Award Austria, took place. The best issuers were awarded in eight categories and the overall winner was announced. As market leader, Raiffeisen Centrobank (RCB) once again convinced the jury and was voted best Austrian issuing house for the twelfth consecutive time.

„The past months showed that certificates are interesting investment products that open up opportunities in challenging market environments. Therefore we are very pleased to receive this important award and consider it an acknowledgement for our intensive and enduring efforts in the certificate market.“

Heike Arbter, Managing Director and Head of Structured Products at RCB

The award ceremony took place at the premises of Raiffeisen Bank International in Vienna and was hosted by Zertifikate Forum Austria (ZFA) and its partner ZertifikateJournal. The independent top-class jury with 21 experts voted: With only one exception (4th place in the category of leveraged products) Raiffeisen Centrobank remained ahead of its competitors and won every single category.
