

CERTIFICATE AWARD AUSTRIA 2020

RAIFFEISEN CENTROBANK AG

14 TIMES CERTIFICATE-CHAMPION

For the first time in digital format, the 14th presentation of the Certificate Award Austria took place yesterday afternoon. At the most important award for the domestic certificates industry, the best issuers were honored in a live broadcast and an overall winner was chosen. As the market leader, Raiffeisen Centrobank was able to convince again and won the trophy as the best Austrian issuer for the 14th time in a row.

Overall win: best issuer

„Customer needs and high-quality product solutions are now, as in the past, the number one priority. How well we accomplishing this is shown by daily customer and bank advisor feedback, but of course also by jury evaluations and awards such as the Certificates Award Austria. Winning the overall prize means a lot to the team and to me, and sets us on a strong path for the future.“

Mag. Heike Arbter,
Member of the Board, RCB

At the annual Certificate Award, which was held as a digital event for the first time this year, Raiffeisen Centrobank AG (RCB) was again able to assert itself against national and international competitors with its services and products. The independent and top-class jury, consisting of 23 industry experts, has decided: RCB is once again Austria's best certificate house in 2020.

QUALITY LABEL FOR PRODUCTS AND SERVICES

The RCB was able to secure top placement in five of the ten award categories. Once again, RCB convinced the jury as an innovation driver and won the Innovation of the Year category with the certificate savings plan. This certificate enables Raiffeisen customers to build up their wealth with regular monthly savings and to benefit from the tried and tested bonus mechanism. RCB was also able to win the Audience Award, which this year honored the information and service offering. Particularly noteworthy are the awards for the Best Bonus Certificate and first place in the Primary Market and Secondary Market Offering.

Innovation of the Year

„Seeing that our innovative strength is coming to fruition and more and more people are investing in certificates are the true measures of our success. In addition, being awarded the innovation prize once again is a huge incentive to continue to push our innovative strength forward.“
