

Raiffeisen Centrobank AG remains Austria's Certificates House Number 1

On September, 30th, the Certificates Award Austria was hosted by Zertifikate Austria and ZertifikateJournal for the 15th time, honouring the best Austrian issuers as well as an overall winner. As market leader, Raiffeisen Centrobank AG was again able to convince the jury and was awarded best Austrian issuer for the 15th time in a row.

Raiffeisen Centrobank AG (RCB) asserted itself against national and international competitors for the 15th time in a row and was able to convince the jury with its service and product range. The 21-strong, independent expert jury has decided:

RCB remains Austria's best certificates house also in the year 2021!

„This outstanding teamwork is shored up by our passion for the product and our conviction that certificates provide added value.“

Philipp Arnold,
Head of Structured Products Sales

„These awards are an impressive recognition of our work and honour our key priority which is to meet customers' and advisors' expectations.“

Heike Arbter,
Board Member, RCB

15th Award Ceremony by ZFA, 15th Overall Victory for RCB

In seven of nine award categories, RCB was able to secure top rankings. By winning five first places RCB also became overall winner. The award received for the best Bonus Certificate and the first place in the category Capital Protection are particularly noteworthy.

Independent Jury Evaluation, Confirmed by the Audience

The expert jury consisted of asset managers, retail bankers, online brokers and financial journalists. The objectivity and independence of the evaluation and voting process were reviewed and confirmed by EY Austria. The audience award for the best issuer in the Info & Services category was awarded beforehand via online voting. By winning awards in the individual categories RCB also won the overall jury prize.
